

Abri roadmap to NET ZERO CARBON

- Abri action
- Government action
- Climate change committee action

2020

- UK Govt. 10 point plan to zero carbon by 2050
- Committee on climate change: 6th Carbon Budget introduced

- Abri complete a carbon benchmark assessment of existing homes
- Abri undertake Project Sustain to research into environmental, social and governance reporting criteria

2021/22

Abri starts on a number of pilot retrofit projects on existing homes as part of an 'Understanding Retrofit' programme

Abri introduces a new sustainability standard for all new homes

Abri launches the 'Carbon Literacy Programme' for all staff

Abri launches the My Balance APP to enable staff to measure their carbon footprint

Abri works with boards, staff, customers and stakeholders to complete the zero carbon strategy

Government Heating and Building Strategy

Government Future Homes standard First stage introduced which will reduce carbon in new build homes by 31% compared to current standards

2023

- COP26 UN Climate change Summit in UK

Abri 'Zero Carbon Taskforce' established to co-ordinate low carbon initiatives and reporting across the business

Abri embarks on a programme of customer engagement to help customers on the low carbon journey

2025

Abri is one of the founding partners in the 'Greener Futures Partnership' a unique collaboration of five of the UK's largest not for profit housing providers to share knowledge and experience to deliver core objectives around sustainable tenancies, homes and communities

2028

Government legislation comes into force. All social rented homes to have EPC C standard

OFGEM targets 60% Grid decarbonisation

Government legislation comes into force No new Diesel/Petrol cars to be sold

Abri takes feedback from the pilot programme and commences first stage fabric improvement work on existing homes

Government Future Homes standard – part 2 will reduce carbon in new build homes by 75% compared to current standards

2030

All Abri Homes have an Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) level C standard

2035

Abri to complete transition to 100% zero emission vehicles

Government legislation comes into force. 100% zero emission vehicles

Government target to reduce emissions by 78% compared to 1990 levels

2040

Government ZERO CARBON Target

OFGEM targets 100% grid decarbonisation

2045

Abri becomes NET ZERO CARBON

2050

